

HANKEN

Hanken School of Economics

Internship programme

About Hanken

- » Hanken is a leading university in the field of economics and business administration
- » Founded in 1909
- » EQUIS and AMBA accredited
- » 2300 students (B.Sc., M.Sc. and PhD)
- » Campuses in Helsinki and Vaasa (Finland)

Degrees and subjects

» Integrated Bachelor's and Master's degree

- » Three + two year programme
- » Language of instruction: Swedish and English
- » Need for internships abroad

» Master's degree programmes in English

- » Two year programmes
- » Language of instruction: English
- » Need for internships in Finland

» Subjects

accounting, economics, entrepreneurship, management and organisation, finance, marketing, statistics, information systems science, commercial law, political science, supply chain management and corporate geography, languages

Why hire a Hanken intern?

- » The interns are hard working motivated business students
- » A cost effective way of recruiting young talents
- » Easy recruitment channel, most work done by Hanken
- » Visibility and a positive image among Hanken students
- » Strengthen employer brand

Feedback from employer

“Hanken interns have great language skills, are internationally minded, competent and responsive.”

“In order to give the interns a genuine insight into our business we openly include the interns in our daily routines. The tasks are demanding and are directly tied to our core business.”

Marcus Honkanen

Director International Department / International Consultant
Kienbaum Executive Consultants

Marcus Honkanen has positive experience from hiring several Hanken interns.

Internship alternatives

» Internship abroad

- » For students in the integrated Bachelor's and Master's programme
- » Hire an intern for minimum 3 months
- » Minimum salary 1000 €/month of which Hanken subsidises 2000€/internship

» Internship in Finland

- » For students in the English Master's programmes (already have a Bachelor's degree)
- » Hire an intern from one of Hanken's English Master's programmes
- » Minimum duration of the internship is 3 months
 - » salary 1000 €/month of which Hanken supports with 2000€/internship

OR

- » Scholarship from Hanken of 1500 € for a 3 months internship

About the interns

- » Hard working future managers with great language skills
 - » Interns can manage accounting tasks, produce marketing material, perform market analysis, conduct research projects, give customer service, organize events etc.
 - » Hanken has a higher relation of international students than any other Finnish business university: truly international students/interns
-
- » The students in the English Master's programmes are from all over the world, for example:
India, China, Switzerland, UK, USA, France, Brazil, Canada, Russia, Estonia, Germany, Kenya, Egypt.

How do I get an intern?

- » For internships abroad: fill in the form Internship request and send it to Hanken. Internship positions are announced three times a year, February, August and November.
- » For internships in Finland: fill in the form Internship request and send it to Hanken as soon as possible.
- » Address: Hanken/Ekonomforum, Po Box 479, 00100 Helsinki, Finland
- » Hanken sends you the applicants' CV's
- » You interview and choose your intern

Interested?

For more information please visit: www.hanken.fi

Contact:

Head of Career Services Erik Lund

Telephone: +358 (0)403521541

E-mail: erik.lund@hanken.fi