

APPENDIX 1

LIST OF PUBLICATIONS RELEVANT TO RESPONSIBLE MANAGEMENT EDUCATION FROM 2012 AND 2013

This appendix introduces research that is linked to themes of sustainability and corporate responsibility published by Hanken faculty 2012-2013. There has been a clear increase in publications where questions related to sustainability and corporate responsibility have been addressed. Some issues that have been at the core of this research include gender issues, governance issues, humanitarian logistics and open-access issues.

The refereed journal articles presented in this section were derived from the Hanken Research Information System (HARIS). The total number of peer-reviewed articles was 264 for the time period. The abstracts of these were scanned for key words, such as 'sustainability', 'responsibility', 'governance', 'open access', 'gender', 'learning', 'corruption', 'fraud', 'NGO', 'non-governmental', 'society' and 'social' in order to get a comprehensive view of the type of research that touches on these topics at Hanken. The inclusion of topical articles is thus broad rather than exclusive in order to capture the different meanings different subjects and faculty attach to sustainability, corporate responsibility and ethics
