2. Why Does Hanken Process Your Personal Data?

Hanken processes your personal data for the following purposes:

- Organization of events and consideration of special needs
- Information dissemination and communication about the event
- Possible invoicing
- Feedback

3. What is the Legal Basis for Hanken's Processing of Your Personal Data?

The processing of personal data is based on Articles 6.1(f) (legitimate interest) and 6.1(a) (consent) of the GDPR.

4. What Personal Data is Collected and Processed at Hanken?

Hanken only processes personal data that is necessary for the specific purpose for which it is collected. The personal data collected includes:

- Name
- E-mail address
- Phone number
- Special dietary information
- Role
- Title/Organization
- Survey responses
- Billing information
- Personal data captured through photography and recording

The types of data collected vary depending on the event.

Your personal data is processed only by employees of Hanken or by individuals working on behalf of and for Hanken who are authorized to process the data.

5. How Does Hanken Collect Your Personal Data?

Data is collected from the following sources:

- Directly from you
- CRM
- Open sources
- Invoice database

6. To Whom May Hanken Disclose Your Personal Data?

Hanken uses the tools CRM (Mira Networks) and E-lomake for event registrations, which are external services.

At Hanken events, photographs and videos may be taken by participants, which may later be published on Hanken's website, social media, and in other university-related publications.

In some cases, personal data may be shared with external partners who assist in the organization of events. Before such sharing takes place, Hanken ensures that these third parties process personal data in accordance with applicable data protection legislation.

7. Transfer of your Personal Data to Third Countries

Your personal data will not be transferred to third countries outside the EU/EEA.

8. How Long Is Your Personal Data Stored?

The retention period for registration data is 2 years, and for feedback 6 years. Retention periods for material published on Hanken's website and social media are specified in the respective privacy notices.

9. Your rights under the GDPR

9.1. Right of Access and Right to Rectification of Personal Data

In accordance with the GDPR, you have the right to know what personal data Hanken processes about you. You also have the right to have inaccurate personal data rectified, without undue delay. If your personal data is incomplete, you have the right to have data completed, with regards to the purpose of the processing.

9.2. Right to Erasure and Withdrawal of Consent

You have the right to request the erasure of your personal data if it is no longer needed for the purpose for which it was collected or processed. However, this right does not apply if the processing is necessary for:

- Compliance with a legal obligation,
- The performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller,
- The establishment, exercise, or defence of legal claims, or
- Exercising the right of freedom of expression and information.

If the processing of your personal data is based on consent, you have the right to withdraw your consent. If there is no longer a legal basis for processing after withdrawal, your personal data will be deleted.

9.3. Right to Restriction of Processing

You have the right to request the restriction of the processing of your personal data in certain situations. This applies if:

- You contest the accuracy of the personal data – during the period required to verify the data,
- The processing is unlawful, and you oppose the erasure of the personal data and instead request the restriction of its use, or
- Hanken no longer needs the personal data for the original purpose, but you need them to establish, exercise, or defend legal claims.

9.4. Right to Data Portability

You have the right to receive your personal data that you have provided to Hanken or to have your personal data transmitted to another controller in certain cases.

9.5. Right to Object to Processing

You have the right to object to the processing of your personal data if the processing is based on a public or legitimate interest.

9.6. Right Not to be Subject to Automated Decision-making

You have the right not to be subject to a decision based solely on automated processing, including profiling, which produces legal effects concerning you or similarly significantly affects you.

10. Exercising Your Rights

To exercise your rights under the GDPR, you may contact Hanken's Data Protection Officer by email at: dpo@hanken.fi.

If you believe that the processing of your personal data violates the provisions of the GDPR, you have the right to file a complaint with the Office of the Data Protection Ombudsman.

11. Right to be Informed of a Personal Data Breach

If a personal data breach occurs that is likely to result in a high risk to your rights and freedoms, Hanken, as the data controller, is obliged to inform you of the incident without undue delay.
